PRESS RELEASE

MAY SHOW ENTRY FORMS NOW AVAILABLE

Entry forms are now available for The Cleveland Museum of Art's 1986 May Show. The annual juried exhibition of paintings, graphics, photographs, sculpture, and crafts by artists of Ohio's Western Reserve is scheduled from May 14 through June 29. Entry forms can be picked up at the Museum, area colleges and art schools, libraries, art galleries, photo and art supply shops, and major department stores in Cuyahoga and surrounding counties. The Museum will mail entry forms on request only to artists living outside Cuyahoga County.

Eligibility and other entry requirements are explained on the entry form. The May Show is open only to artists who were born, live, or work in the thirteen-county area of Ohio's Western Reserve: Ashland, Ashtabula, Cuyahoga, Erie, Geauga, Huron, Lake, Lorain, Mahoning, Medina, Portage, Summit, or Trumbull counties. Artists may enter two works completed during the past year; initial entry is by 35mm slides. Deadline for submission of entry forms and slides is March 8. There is no entry fee.

Jurors will make an initial selection of works from the submitted slides. This year's jury includes Museum staff members and two invited jurors--Elena Karina Canavier, a successful ceramic artist and Director of the Public Art Trust, Washington D.C., a nonprofit service organization for the encouragement of art in public places, and Patterson Sims, Associate Curator, Permanent Collection, Whitney Museum of American Art, New York.

Entrants will be notified of the results of the initial screening on approximately March 24. Artists invited to submit works for final jurying must bring them to the Museum between April 8 and 12. Final notification of acceptance or rejection will be sent to entrants around April 23.

Artists who do not have slides of their works and need information about photographing them should contact the New Organization for the Visual Arts at 216/621-1844.
